

Ballet Dance Group Gives Premier Performance In Opp

The Ballet Dance Group, a small company of five dancers devoted to presenting ballet as a vital and enjoyable form of theatrical entertainment, proved their point in Opp October 14 as an impressively large audience from over southeast Alabama can now attest.

It was the premier performance of the Southeast Alabama Arts Association Series 70-71, a series conceived as an area effort to provide live, high quality, artistic performances in southeast Alabama. The Association is assisted by the Alabama Council on the Arts and its activities are coordinated at the Enterprise State Junior College.

Yuri Chatal and his Ballet Dance Group presented a well-balanced program of romantic and classic repertoire, meticulously correct in details of presentation and performance, and perfectly suited to the occasion and the audience.

The five dancers, handling costume changes masterfully, presented their program with such aplomb and sparkle as to the belie their small number. The evening moved along technically and artistically as if they were a large company with a battery of technicians.

The program was wholesome fare for local music and dance lovers and was at the same time, an ideal introduction to those who had seen little or no ballet before. It was a special treat for the over one hundred dance and music students in the audience from Elba, Opp, Florida, Enterprise, Andalusia and northwest Florida.

The Brahms, Chopin, and Strauss music was familiar to all and the dance was pure pleasure. The "Peasant Pas De Deux" from "Giselle" was an excellent selection to exhibit this classical structure in ballet, while the traditional Russian folk music, to which Mr. Chatal choreographed a gem of a dance, gave a touch of the folk heritage incorporated into ballet presentations.

Mr. Chatal's "Summer Games", to music by Maurice Strakosky, was a highlight.

Commissioner Is Debt Free In District 2

Byron Galloway was a newcomer in politics six years ago when he was a successful candidate for Commissioner for District 2, Coffee County. He is proud of his now serving his second term.

When Commissioner Galloway took over his duties in District 2 he found a large debt his responsibility. He immediately went to work to do something about the problem and today with still two years to go in the present term in office he has solved the problem—the debt has been paid off and his District is now clear of all outstanding indebtedness.

In the annual financial statement for Coffee County which was carried in The Elba Clipper last week an error was made in listing liabilities and on one line of notes payable listed District 2 when it should have read District 4, which continues to have heavy

Elba Tigers Lose Big Game To Troy

The Elba Tigers traveled to Troy and took on the Charles Henderson High Trojans last Friday night. The Tigers got the worst end of almost everything, however, and came away with a 26-12 defeat.

Troy fullback Richard Bassett scored three TD's for the Trojans and his constant running with the ball will cause nightmares for the Tigers for years to come. Bassett scored three TD's Friday night and gained a total of 214 yards during the game.

The Elba team, already plagued with injuries on the line, suffered a shocking loss early in the third quarter when Donnie Holley dislocated his shoulder reaching for a pass right in front of the Elba bench.

On the Troy kick-off, Donnie Smith caught the ball on the ten yard line and ripping right down the middle went all the way for a touchdown. The Trojans scored early in the game and had momentum going.

Elba tried an on side kick, and Troy got the ball at their own 45. With this kick field position, it took them only four plays to break another score on their left side for another score. The score was Troy 19, Elba 12.

Elba tried an Elba punt, Troy had the ball on their own 32 yard line. Troy tried to their 30 and then Bassett broke through the middle for another TD. This time the PAT was good and the score was Troy 26, Elba 12, with only 4:18 left in the game.

AUXILIARY PRESIDENT Mrs. Bill Morrow, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Ringsdorf, Mayor Brunson and Legion President James Boswell.

Day Of Prayer Proclaimed

Mayor Jack Brunson has declared Sunday, November 15th, as the Day of Prayer for the Prisoners of War Day. The declaration was made in conjunction with the local American Legion Post and the Legion Auxiliary of Elba and is supported by the churches of Elba. The Day of Prayer across the nation is for all prisoners of war and for those missing in action. In Elba, local citizens are asked to pray a special prayer for Elba's

Ben Ringsdorf who was shot down in Southeast Asia on November 15th, four years ago.

Ringsdorf is a prisoner of war and occasionally corresponds with his family, however, it was months and months after his capture before any word on his whereabouts were made known. The last letter his parents received from him was written in April of this year.

Legion commander James Boswell, who presented the proclamation to Mayor Brunson for signing, quoted from a letter from President Nixon. It read in part: "We who are privileged to enjoy the gift of freedom have a profound obligation to those among our fellow citizens who have defended the rights we hold so dear. The hostages who remain have earned the gratitude of everyone of us, and I hope that all Americans will take your eloquent and moving prayer for our prisoner of war in their homes and in their hearts."

Police Phone Source Of Complaints

"The telephone at the police station is for business only," said Police Chief Jack Smart, Monday night when two accidents happened during the rain at 6:00 p.m.

Both Chief Smart and his radio operator were as busy as could be dispatching police cars, rescue squads and coordinating all four of these units with the State Farm Insurance Company.

The new building will contain 4,500 square feet of floor space and a parking area of 8,000 square feet will be provided.

This is another progressive step in Elba where the old is making way for the new.

Before the mountains were brought forth
Or ever Thou hadst formed
The earth and the world.
Even from everlasting to everlasting,
Thou art God! (Psalm 90:2)

Is it odd to find these twenty-four words here in your newspaper? But here they are . . . centuries old, out of the enthrallment of a man who looked at a mountain, at the rugged earth and the vast sky above, at time, at eternity. Do his words belong among the headlines and datelines, the terse reports of earth-shaking events? Should they compete for our attention with all the goods and services we'd like to buy? Well this man made a remarkable discovery: he did not simply arrive at the fact of Divine creation. Nor did he merely proclaim the existence and endless reign of God. He spoke to God! He knew Him! Have our headlines yet reported a greater discovery?

Home Sewing Is Becoming A Revolution

A revolution is taking place in home sewing. A large part is the development of new and simple techniques to sew the marvelous knitted and stretch-type fabrics. The end result is a new interest in home sewing that has been missing for many years.

According to A. L. Byington, owner of House of Fabrics located at 322 Buffalo, Elba, Alabama, it will not be long before the majority of fabrics sold will be either stretch or knitted.

With knits dominating the fashion scene, dozens of area women are enrolling for classes at House of Fabrics to keep in step with current fashion trends in knits. The classes are conducted by Annie Laurie Sellers who has graduated from the H-Fashion Institute's "Training School."

Mrs. Sellers will instruct the popular "Learn by Doing" method. In a single two-hour class the student learns to sew a knit garment - slacks, skirt, suit jacket to match, sweater, or swimsuit.

Classes are being conducted morning, afternoon and evening of each week. Enrollment in each class is limited to provide for ample individual help. Registration can be made in advance at the House of Fabrics.

House of Fabrics is open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. Mrs. Sellers, a H-Fashion sewing consultant is ready to serve the home sewer with the most modern and complete sewing facilities in the area.

EHS REPORT

Elba Tigers Enjoy A Great Season

It seems that everybody has his own idea about future prospects for the tigers, so an interview with Coach Akins seemed like the only way to find out what's really happening.

Coach Akins said that the tigers had been invited to all the major bowls in the southeastern part of the state. Elba was invited to participate in the Peanut Bowl in Dothan, the Camelia Bowl in Greenville, and also the Freedom Bowl in Enterprise, which he believes may be the best one around. However, the tigers turned down these three "tempters" for an even greater challenge--STATE!

Even after the loss to Troy last Friday night, we think the tigers have had a great season and we're proud of them.

What If:

- ...Mr. Hickman wore a white uniform on Friday night?
- ...Bill Scarborough got to Geometry on time?
- ...Somebody called Coach Carmichael Coach Treachwell?
- ...The Pep Club gave everybody a little peace and quiet at just one ballgame? (Just kidding girls! You're doing a great job!)
- ...Kathy DeVaughan passed Algebra?
- ...Cindi and Vicki never dropped their rifles?
- ...Eddie Kelley was always serious at hand practice?
- ...Rev. Hammond forgot his hat?
- ...The lunchroom didn't serve left-overs?
- ...Everyone in school wasn't always selling something?
- ...Bruce Thompson got a crew-cut?
- ...Ann and Courtney couldn't think of anyone what-ifs?

Student Council Aims For Better Relationship

The Elba High School Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Frank Clark, meets every second, fourth and fifth Thursdays for the purpose of trying to create a better student to school relationship.

It was organized on the fact that if the student has a surrounding that he himself approves of, that the student will enjoy and appreciate school more. The Student Council is the organization which represents the students.

Each homeroom has one representative to these meetings. The representative presents the problem of a student in his homeroom. This problem is then talked about and a solution is usually brought forth.

The officers for this year's Student Council are as follows:

Skip Rainer, president; Freddie Moore, vice president; Susan Danford, secretary; Vicki Vaughan, treasurer; Jackie Smart, reporter; Judi Vaughan, parliamentarian.

I work as a V. I. E. student at the Elba Exchange Bank. I go to work everyday at 8:00 P. M. The bank closes at 3:00 P. M. Monday through Thursday. All workers must stay until all work is done. "SIX FULL HOURS" A TEACHER'S WOE

Some people say teacher is made out of steel. Their mind can think but their body can't feel. Iron and steel and hickory tea. Frowns and gripes from eight to three.

You teach six full hours and what do you get? Another day older and deeper in debt. You pay your dues in this and that. Then for 29 days your bill-fold's flat.

I was born one morning when it was cloudy and cool. I picked up my register and headed for school. I wrote 84 names on the homeroom roll. And the principal said, "Well bless my soul!"

You teach six full hours to 84 brats. And all of them yellin' like dogs and cats. They're cutting on the seats and writing on walls. Hugging and kissing in the upstairs halls.

The last bell rings and I start for the door. My head's a ringing and my feet are sore. I taught six full hours, my day is made. But I still have 300 papers to grade.

You teach six full hours and what do you get? Another day older and deeper in debt. I'll go to St. Peter but I just can't stay. I gotta come back to P.T.A. well expressed through her

Senior Of The Week Jan Young

Elba High School's "Senior of the Week" for this week is Jan Young. Jan is a brown eyed, blonde haired cheerleader and a very outstanding student of Elba High. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Young.

Her main interests are cooking, sewing and tennis. Her hobbies are fishing, swimming and eating. Jan's favorite teacher is Mr. Clark, and her favorite class is Democracy.

She is a member of the Beta Club, Pep Club, E. Club, Mu Alpha Theta, and vice president of PHA and on the Elbala staff.

When asked what qualities she thought a boy should have she said, he should be a green eyed, blonde haired Elba Tiger and the secretary of the senior class. He should most definitely wear jersey number 25 on Friday nights and always be late for dates.

That kind narrow's it down doesn't it fellows? Jan believes that more school spirit and a better attitude from the students would greatly improve our school.

It's not hard to believe that her pet peeve is losing a ballgame.

After finishing high school Jan wants to go to college and later become the wife of a pro-football star.

Jan's popularity has been well expressed through her

THE LOVE BUGS

I like any other high school, Elba High has lots of cute couples. We think Jimmy and Babs are typical of the couples at EHS.

Jimmy is fifteen years old and in the tenth grade. He is an officer in the French Club and of course, Babs is fourteen years old (I'll soon be fifteen) as she says) and in the ninth grade. She is in the French Club. Babs' main interest is Jimmy. Although she'll deny it is Jimmy.

The thing that makes Jimmy and Babs so well liked is that whenever you see them together they always seem to be happy and having fun.

A very typical conversation between them follows:

Jimmy: I bet I can ring the garbage can with this piece of paper.
Babs: I bet you can't, Jimmy. Yes, I can.
Babs: No, you can't, Jimmy. See there, I did it.
Babs: I knew you could, the time.

Remember plants that are growing in the yard and are not hardy should be potted in tubs if you want to over-winter choice material. Do not wait until the danger of frost is present to move the plants. The shock will be greater if they are transplanted and moved indoors at the same time.

APPLIANCES

It's estimated that 30 to 50 percent of all household service calls are not necessary. And consumers pay millions of dollars for these unnecessary service calls each year.

These false alarms not only cost the consumer, but also tie up trained personnel.

Lucia Stephens Student Of The Month

"Student of the Month" is a new column in the EHS Report, and is indeed a great honor. One student from each grade, nine through twelve, is nominated and sponsored by the faculty which makes the final decision.

Our "Student of the Month" for November is Lucia Stephens. Lucia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewey Stephens, Jr. Her hobbies are baby-sitting, baton twirling and the band. Because of Lucia's outstanding performance every Friday night, it is quite evident that her favorite interest is the band. Lucia's favorite teacher is Mrs. Butts and her favorite class is English. She believes if everyone could be nicer to each other our school would greatly be improved.

Lucia is a member of the F. H. A. Mu Alpha Theta, Junior Music Club and the Beta Club. She plans to attend college and study law after her graduation from high school this year.

Both a morning session, from 9 to 11 a.m. and an evening session, from 7 to 9 p.m., will be offered. The class, which will last three weeks, will meet each Tuesday. Enrollment fee is $6.

The class, which will be both workshop and lectures, will emphasize door decorations, interior decorations and lawn decorations.

Jimmy Bailey Elected French Club Reporter

On October 22, 1970, the nomination of can-Elba High School French Club met in the auditorium at 8:00. The meeting was called to order by Kathy Thomas, president. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the recording secretary, Vicki Taylor. The minutes were approved as read. Glenda Kelley, the faculty would vote each month to make the final led the roll. In the order of unfinished business, Jimmy Bailey was elected as reporter for the club. The meeting was adjourned. The next order of business was to the lack of time.

COFFEE NEWS & CHAT

NEW VEGETABLES

Tired of conventional-colored vegetables? How would you like green cauliflower? It even stays green after cooking. It was produced by researchers by crossing a good white cauliflower variety with broccoli. It's only in the early developing stages -- not yet available, but I thought you would be interested to learn of a new vegetable.

INDOOR PLANTS

Container-grown, indoor plants should be placed on porches or in the yard to have the benefit of mild days and cool nights before frost.

I'd like to remind you of this last chance to have good natural light. It will provide valuable growing time before plants must be moved indoors where growing conditions may not be best.

Plants in containers outdoors will require more frequent watering. An application of fertilizer will prove beneficial while they are outside.

Remember plants that are growing in the yard and are not hardy should be potted in tubs if you want to over-winter choice material. Do not wait until the danger of frost is present to move the plants. The shock will be greater if they are transplanted and moved indoors at the same time.

All Around Coffee County

GOOD BUYS

Coffee County consumers will get some real good buys in both pork and broilers in the weekend ahead. Broilers are selling cheaper now in the stores than they have in several years. In fact, I can remember a time when they were this good of a buy. Hams, bacon, sausage and other pork products are also going to be a good buy if the stores will lower their prices in line with what the producers are receiving. Of course, all of this is had for the Coffee County producers, but it is good for the consumers. I hasten to add that there are ups and downs in prices. So I certainly hope that our people will take advantage of these good buys.

CANDIDATE

Philip Martin, president of the Coffee County Farm Bureau, will be a candidate for election to the State Board of Directors of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation. Philip has served as president of the Coffee County Farm Bureau for the past three years. For several years before this he served as president of the American Dairy Association in Alabama. I am sure that Philip will do a good job if he is elected. Coffee County is fortunate in having some outstanding young men to give leadership to programs which will be beneficial to the county.

CATFISH COMMITTEE

I have recently been named a member of a newly created Catfish Study Committee. As a member of this committee I will get to tour catfish operations in Arkansas, Mississippi and Georgia December 6, 7 and 8. There are many ways that catfish can be grown commercially. One purpose of this tour will be to seek out the advantages and disadvantages of each method. I am looking forward to going on this trip with other members of the Extension staff at Auburn.

HOG OUTLOOK

James Danion, our specialist at Auburn in charge of the Expanded Swine Program, is not at all gloomy about hog prices. He says that any time the industry experiences a 15% increase in production, growers can look for sharply reduced prices. At this time, according to Danion, the prices received are much lower, but he says better prices are ahead for Christmas. My advice to our Coffee County folks would be to watch expenses and to sell at lighter weights than they would ordinarily. I recommend lighter weights because pigs produce more meat on less feed up to 200 pounds than they do from 200 pounds on up. So efficiency of production is increased. In-dentally, now is a good time for folks to get rid of old, worn out sows and replace with better breeding stock.

BULL SALE

The annual BCHA sale of on-farm tested bulls will be held Tuesday, December 8 at Auburn, Richard Deese, Extension Animal Husbandman in charge of the sale, said this sale will include 31 Angus, 10 Hereford and 16 Polled Hereford and one Red Angus for a total of 58 bulls. All of these bulls have completed a test-weaning test with better than 2 pounds gained per day of age while on test.

For the first time the sale will also include heifers. Ten registered Angus heifers will be offered, be to seek out the advantages and disadvantages of each method. I am looking forward to going on this trip with other members of the Extension staff at Auburn.

GRASS TETANY

A lot of folks have asked, "What does grass tetany mean?" This is a term usually given to a disturbance occurring in cows and is characterized by low blood serum magnesium levels. The symptoms are excitement, incoordination and loss of appetite, viciousness, staggering and falling, muscle twitching, anxious or wild look, grinding of the teeth, labored breathing, usually followed by convulsions and death. Older brood cows nursing calves while grazing oats, rye or wheat pasture seem to be most susceptible. It occurs most often in December, January, February and March. Check your herd carefully after they go on grass. If you see symptoms, call your veterinarian immediately.

Keep Communication Open

"Talking to him is like talking to a stone wall." "She never gives me a chance to finish what I'm trying to say!" Do these comments sound familiar? These and similar ones signal a communication breakdown, says Miss Barbara Fite, Extension specialist in human development. "One of the most important elements in happy family life is sharing ideas and feelings. Because of this, says the specialist, there is a need to keep communication lines open. How? Most importantly by learning to listen. --LISTEN to feelings. Feelings are often hidden behind the words being said. --LISTEN to understand. Most of us at times tune someone out when they are talking. We may try to read or to think of our reply, or our interest may simply wander. Our automatic 'uh huh's' may accidentally punctuate the speaker's remarks at appropriate places, but the important thing is that we are not 'with' him and, therefore, can't get his complete message. --LISTEN without judging. Within a family it's important for members to be free to express even unapproved feelings without fear of being rejected, to talk about the unpleasant as well as the pleasant. --LISTEN for the sake of another. One of our needs as human beings is to express what we think and feel about people and things. Giving a person an opportunity to share, in confidence, his deepest feelings helps keep communication lines open. --LISTEN to yourself. We need to listen to ourselves occasionally if we are to improve our communication. This is most easily done in retrospect. In looking back, we might

Private Shooting Preserves May Stock Game

Any licensed private, commercial shooting preserve in Alabama that has been licensed by the Department of Conservation may stock for hunting exotic or non-native birds or animals except those listed on the Interior Department "Endangered Species" roster, Conservation Director Joe W. Graham announced Friday.

White tail deer may also be harvested under this license as long as this species is harvested only during the legal deer season, Graham said.

Under terms of the regulation which has the force and effect of law any licensed shooting preserve operator may obtain a letter from the Director of Conservation authorizing the stocking and harvesting of exotic or non-native game birds or animals as long as they're not on the "endangered" list.

There were 184 citizens of West Coffee County who volunteered to give a pint of blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile in Elba last Thursday. One hundred and fifty-eight donors were accepted and twenty-six were rejected for various reasons.

Donors from Dorsey Trailers totaled 135; Camp Elba had 26 volunteers. The total donations from West Coffee County in 1970 were 278 pints of blood. The quota for this area was 330 pints.

Baptist Youth Choir Presents Musical

The Youth Choir of the First Baptist Church will present a contemporary musical entitled, "NOW HEAR IT AGAIN" in the main auditorium of the church this Sunday night at 7:00. Everyone is invited to attend, especially all young people who are not attending church elsewhere. This presentation by the 50-voice choir will be of particular interest to all youth.

A 15-year old boy was shot to death Saturday night and the victim's father is being held on a murder charge.

Mark A. Townsend of 610 Stanley St. died about 6 p.m. of a .32-caliber bullet wound to the heart, according to District Attorney Allen Edmond Cook.

Cook said the father, Marvin Townsend, 44, was charged with first-degree murder and held with bond.

Police said Mrs. Townsend told them her son had just come in from a paper route and was watching television when his father told him to stand.

Mrs. Townsend told police that the boy stood and asked his father to stop joking with him. She said the elder Townsend drew a revolver from his belt and shot the boy at close range, police said.

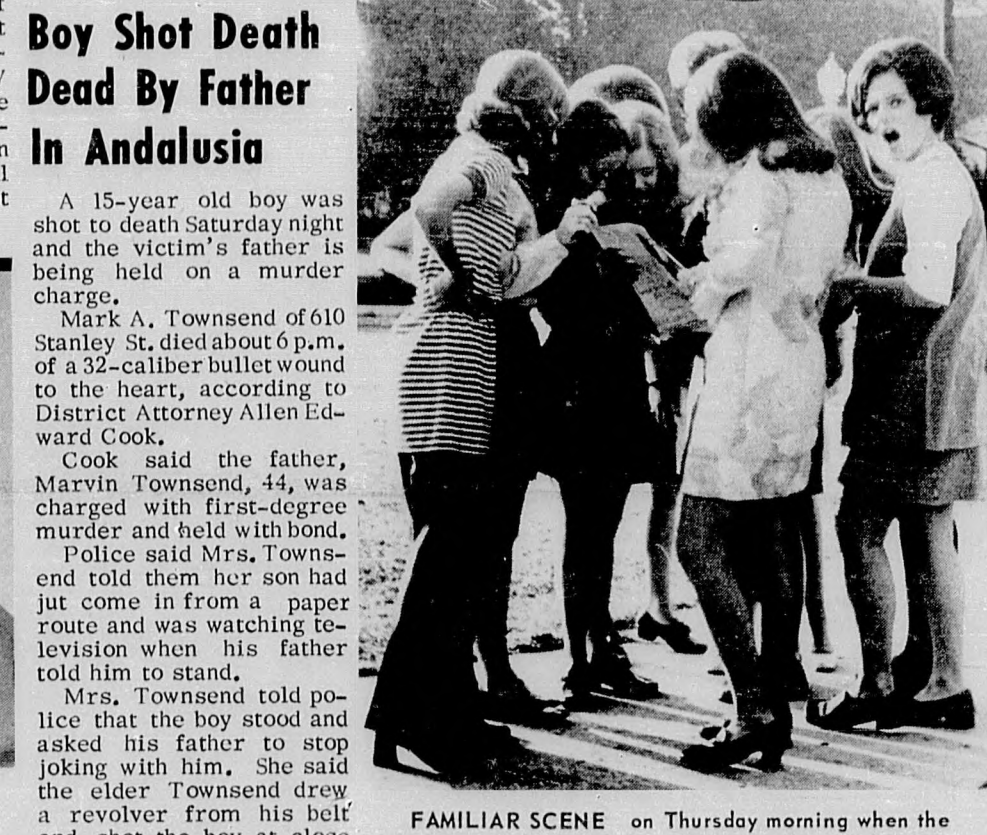

Cook said that animosity allegedly had been building up between the boy and his father over a period of years, "but we don't know that this was the motive."

TB Drive Underway In Coffee County
Teamwork is conquering disease as well as space! "Let's stick together" is the theme of the Christmas Seal Campaign which began last Tuesday, November 10 with the mailing of this year's new and interestingly different Christmas Seals to thousands of families in Coffee County.

"Teamwork is beating tuberculosis," says Roy Shoffner, chairman of the Christmas Seal Campaign this year. "Physicians, nurses, public health workers and researchers who brought us the remarkable drugs to beat tuberculosis. And certainly the patient himself is part of the team. He has to take his medicine faithfully for a fairly long period of time in order to get well."

"And don't forget the public -- all those people who have contributed to Christmas Seals throughout the years," continued Shoffner. "They're part of the team too. Without Christmas Seal funds, we'd be considerably retarded in our struggle against tuberculosis. By saying, 'Let's Stick Together,' we are calling on everyone to help in the fight against disease."

Christmas Seal funds not only fight tuberculosis, but other respiratory diseases, such as emphysema, air pollution and smoking. The Coffee County Christmas Campaign is

Power Company Files Protest To Court Verdict

Alabama Power Company filed a motion in Butler County Circuit Court on November 12, 1970, asking the court to set aside a verdict and $15,000 judgment returned against the company on October 14, 1970, in a suit brought by the Butler County Private School Foundation, Inc., which operates the Fort Dale Academy. In its motion, the company also asked for a new trial.

The foundation, in its suit, charged the company with negligence and error in estimating the cost of electric service for the Fort Dale Academy. The estimate was made prior to construction of the academy, was based on plans presented by the academy's owners, and assumed normal operation of the academy's facilities.

Power set out 60 grounds in asking for dismissal of the verdict and judgement and for the granting of a new trial.

Among other grounds, the company said the verdict "is contrary to the law of the case" and "is contrary to the evidence." The verdict, the company stated, "is not sustained by the great preponderance of the evidence" and "is against the weight of the evidence."

Alabama Power also said in its motion that the damages awarded by the jury "are excessive."

More Vets Get Schooling During Year
School enrollments among Vietnam veterans increased during fiscal year 1970 by an unprecedented 31 per cent over the previous year, bringing the total number of enrollees in Veterans Administration training program to 1,211,000.

"If the trend continues," Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson predicted, "more veterans will have trained during the fiscal year of the current G.I. Bill than during the 13-year span of the Korean Conflict G.I. Bill."

Growing fastest among the many programs to encourage veterans, their survivors and servicemen on active duty to continue their education or job preparation is one-job training, with a jump of 76 per cent over the 1969 enrollment. Some 55,000 veterans enrolled during 1970 in the programs under which veterans work in approved training positions receive VA allowances during the training period.

Included in this year's enrollment are 87,000 servicemen on active duty attending colleges and schools below college level--all under the G.I. Bill.

A 29 per cent growth was noted in the number of veterans receiving training under vocational rehabilitation programs bringing the total to 24,500 veterans in such VA-supervised programs.

There were 52,500 widows and children of permanently and totally disabled or deceased veterans receiving educational assistance. This was a 14 per cent increase over last year.

Store Thefts Feed Inflation Fires
Losses from burglary and larceny are called inventory "shrinkage."

As a result, consumers must pay higher prices to compensate for the goods lost to thieves plus the cost of business security measures to discourage thefts.

Stores across the country are spending millions of dollars for security programs ranging from chained-down merchandise to elaborate guard systems and electronic detection devices to halt thievery.

During the 1960's larceny (theft of merchandise worth $50 and over) rose 199 per cent and all burglary, from 1960 to 1969, rose 117 per cent, according to the latest FBI Crime Index.
